Respected Sir

2, The petetioner above named most respectfully and humbly beg leave to bring the following to your kind — Consideration and early orders thereon.

(1). my mother, Elukka venkata lakshamma died about 9 months back and during her life time was enjoying the pension — granted to her and her family, as the deceased belonged to the late palyegar family of Elukballapur.

(2). Even after the demise of my mother, the late pensioner, the life pension due to our family has been stopped and on my moving the Government in the matter Enquiries were made as to my right, to Entitle me to draw the said pension.

(3). During the life time of my mother the question of payment of pension to me after the death of the pensioner has been decided and orders issued

SIR,

With reference to Government letter No.Fl.3209 dated 14th December 1921 forwarding for enquiry and report petition dated 1st December 1921 from Parvetammanni of the Chickballapur Pollegar Family, I have the honour to state as follows:-

The petitioner is the daughter of the late Venkatalakshmammanni a lady belonging to the Chickballapur Pollegar family who was granted a pension of Rs 45/- (now amounting with subsequent increases to -- Rs 101-4-0) in Chief Commissioner's Order dated 12th August 1880. The order does not clearly mention as to how the pension should devolve after the death of the lady. That it is not to lapse, however, is apparent from the preamble of the order, which lays down that a pension should lapse only in those cases in which the stipendiaries have no issue or heirs. In the present case, the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar, District, who enquired into the matter reports that the petitioner Parvetammanni is the sole surviving daughter of the late Venkatalakshma
